This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

AS AMENDED BY CHAP. 423, LAWS OF 1874
PASSED MAY 11, 1874

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Cornelius R. Agnew, Horatio Allen, James W. Beekman, Henry W. Bellows, Francis B. Cutting, John A. Dix, Wolcott Gibbs, John C. Green, George Griswold, David Hoadley, Murray Hoffman, William J. Hoppin, Charles King, Charles H. Marshall, Willard Parker, George T. Strong, Jonathan Sturges, Otis D. body corporate, by the name of "The Union League Club," to be located in the city of New York, to promote, encourage, and sustain, by all proper means, absolute and unqualified loyalty to the Government of the United States; to discountenance and rebuke, by moral and social influences, all disloyalty to said Government, and every attempt against the integrity of the Nation; and, in furtherance of these objects, to establish and maintain a Library and a Gallery of Art and Military Trophies, especially devoted to the perpetuation and illustration of the patriotic services and sacrifices by which the existing struggle against rebellion has been characterized.

SEC. 2. Said corporation shall have power to make and adopt a constitution, by-laws, rules, and regulations for the admission, suspension, and expulsion of its members, and their government, the collection of fees and dues, the number and election of its officers, and to define their duties, and for the safe-keeping of its property, and from time to time to alter, modify, or change such constitution, by-laws, rules, and regulations. 3. We pledge ourselves, by every means in our power, collectively and individually, to resist to the uttermost every attempt against the territorial integrity of the nation.

ADDITIONAL ARTICLE OF ASSOCIATION, ADOPTED JANUARY 11, 1866

4. It shall be the duty of the Club to resist and expose corruption, and promote reform in our National, State, and Municipal affairs, and to elevate the ideal of American citizenship.

The list of deceased members contains the names of many old and prominent members, of whom mention is made of John W. Aitken, George S. Edgell, Amos F. Eno, Henry L. Horton, Gen. Thomas H. Hubbard, Hon. William M. Ivins, Col. Augustus G. Paine, and Gen. Benjamin F. Tracy.

The year past has been replete with evidences of the Club's loyalty and devotion to the country's interests in many ways, and its hospitality has been evidenced by its entertainment of many distinguished visitors.

Among the notable events of the year were the following:

In accordance with the expressed wish of many members, a reception and dinner were given for our retiring President, Mr. Samuel W. Fairchild (who served The Union League Club as President for four consecutive years), on January 20, 1915, in recognition of his distinguished services to the Club and as a token of the high personal regard in which he was held. The attendance was probably greater than at any previous similar occasion in the history of the Club and was extremely enthusiastic. A superb sapphire ring, suitably engraved, was presented to Mr. Fairchild, as a gift from one thousand members, in testimony of their affection and esteem; also as a presentation to him of a beautiful walking stick from the employees of the Club.

A reception and supper were given March 11, 1915, for our newly-elected President, the Honorable Elihu

Root, and a large gathering enthusiastically welcomed an old and dear friend.

On April 20, 1915, the Fourth Annual Dinner of the Young Members was held. Congratulations are extended to the Committee in charge, comprised of Albert W. von Lilienthal, Chairman; Mortimer C. Addoms, Jr., Bertram H. Borden, James A. Hawes, Elihu Root, Jr., William F. Wilmoth, and George T. Wilson. The entertainment furnished was of a high order and the attendance was larger than at any previous dinner of the kind, and tested the full capacity of our accommodations. Mr. Wilson presided with great felicity, and among the speakers were: Mr. Harry Brittain, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the British Pilgrims; Mr. Samuel W. Fairchild, Mr. George T. Wilson, Col. Charles H. Sherrill, and Mr. Francis S. Hutchins.

The dinner was enlivened by the singing under the able leadership of Capt. Albert W. von Lilienthal.

On Thursday, May 13, 1915, a reception was held in honor of the visiting Officers of the United States Atlantic Fleet, and the courtesies of the Club were extended to them during their stay in port. The Chairmanship of the Committee of Arrangements was ably filled by Mr. Samuel W. Fairchild. Music was furnished by the Seventh Regiment Band and Prof. McKee's orchestra. The Navy and Army Officers present included, in addition to Admiral Fletcher, Rear-Admirals Henry T. Mayo, Clifford M. Boush, Walter McLean, the battleship division commanders; Captain H. McL. P. Huse, Chief of Staff of the Fleet; Captain William S. Sims, commanding the Atlantic Torpedo Flotilla; Commander Yates Sterling, Jr., the Commander of the Atlantic Submarine Flotilla; Rear-Admiral Nathaniel R. Usher, Commandant of the Navy Yard in Brooklyn; Captain Hilary P. Jones of the dreadnought Florida, Captain Albert Gleaves of the dreadnought Utah, Captain Albert W. Grant of the superdreadnought Texas, Captain George F. Cooper of the battleship Louisiana, Naval Constructor Robert Stocker, the builder of the new superdreadnought Arizona, soon to be launched at the Navy Yard; Captain Herbert O. Dunn, of the fleet flagship, the superdreadnought Wyoming; Captain Thomas S. Rodgers of the superdreadnought New York; Captain J. P. McKean of the dreadnought North Dakota; Captain Robert L. Russell of the dreadnought South Carolina; Captain Leigh C. Palmer of the destroyer McDougal; Colonel William A. Simpson, U. S. A.; Captain Halstead Dorey, U. S. A.; Captain Gordon Johnston, U. S. A.; Major William McK. Saltzmen, U. S. A.; Major Albert E. Truby, U. S. A.; Medical Director L. M. Spratling, U. S. N.; Pay Director Cheatham, U. S. N.; Lieutenant Aubrey Fitch, U. S. N.; Lieutenant Chester L. Hand, U. S. N.; Colonel Charles R. Noyes, U. S. A.; Colonel S. B. Mitcham, Ordnance Department, U. S. A.; and Colonel Daniel Appleton, N. G. N. Y.

The speakers were Admiral Fletcher, Colonel E. A.

Glenn, U. S. A., Chief of Staff on Governor's Island; Mr. Samuel W. Fairchild, ex-President of the Club, and Mr. Charles E. Rushmore.

Colonel Appleton furnished a detail from the Seventh Regiment, which acted as a guard of honor at the entrance to the Club House.

On Wednesday, March 17, 1915, the 29th United States Infantry was escorted in parade by the 71st Regiment, and Squadron A., N. G. N. Y., on their departure from the City of New York to the Panama Canal Zone. Upon this occasion the Club was suitably decorated and the Reviewing Officers were entertained at the Club House at luncheon. President Root presided, and among our distinguished guests and members, besides the Hon. John Purroy Mitchel, Mayor of the City of New York, were the Hon. Joseph H. Choate, Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, Gen. Horace Porter, and Mr. Samuel W. Fairchild, ex-Presidents of the Club; Hon. Henry Brewer Quinby, Col. William G. Bates, of the 71st Regiment and his Staff; Col. Daniel Appleton, of the Seventh Infantry; Gen. Anson G. McCook, Gen. John N. Wheelan, Gen. Thomas H. Hubbard, Gen. Thomas L. Watson, Mr. George T. Wilson, Mr. R. A. C. Smith, Mr. Charles A. Fowler, Mr. James Wilkinson, and Mr. John W. Herbert. Speeches were made by General Wood, Mr. Choate, Mr. Depew, and General Porter.

Enthusiastic interest has been aroused in the Club through the energetic and effective efforts of the Special Committee on National Defense, consisting of Mr. Christopher R. Corning, Chairman; Col. Thomas Dimond, and Maj. Harrison K. Bird. During the past year they have submitted detailed reports of the present condition of national preparedness, at several monthly meetings of the Club. The two principal reports were ordered printed in pamphlet form and mailed to the President and Vice-President of the United States, to each member of the Senate and of the House of Representatives. The first report was sent also to the members of the New York Legislature, and the second to the Governor and Secretary of State of all of the States in the Union; and additional copies were distributed elsewhere with a view to impressing upon the community at large the urgent necessity of prompt and efficient action on the matter of military and naval defense. On April 8, 1915, as a result of the efforts of this Committee addresses were delivered before the members of the Club by Maj.-Gen. John F. O'Ryan of the National Guard of the State of New York, and Capt. Matthew E. Hanna, late of the United States Army, on the subject of "National Defense."

On November 11, 1915, our fellow member, Mr. Henry D. Estabrook addressed the members of the Club most interestingly and instructively on the subject of "National Defense." The lecture was warmly and enthusiastically received by an unusually large audience, and was ordered printed in pamphlet form and mailed to the members of the Club.

Other entertainments were given during the year, as follows:

December 22, 1914, C. J. Blanchard, Statistician of the Reclamation Service, spoke on the "Romance of Reclamation." This was the fifth lecture by Mr. Blanchard before the members of the Club, through the courtesy of the Secretaries of the Interior. On this occasion the lecturer was presented with a gold watch and chain by the Club.

On January 28, 1915, William Webster Ellsworth lectured; subject, "The Making of Europe."

February 11, 1915, Smoker Concert by Nahan Franko and his orchestra.

February 25, 1915, Richard E. Follett lectured; subject, "Restoration of Native Species."

March 25, 1915, B. R. Baumgardt lectured; subject, "An Evening with the Stars."

May 27, 1915, Smoker Concert.

October 14, 1915, Dr. Frederick W. Johnson lectured; subject, "The Wonders of Canada."

October 28, 1915, Smoker Concert by Nahan Franko and his orchestra.

November 18, 1915, Frederick Palmer lectured; subject, "The Great World War."

The foregoing lectures were illustrated with motion pictures.

The thanks of the Club members are extended to Prof. Lawrence D. Kitchell, who delivered a complimentary lecture on January 14, 1915; subject, "Glacier National Park."

The Executive Committee acknowledges with thanks, the gift of a handsome loving cup, originally presented to Col. Frederic C. Wagner by his many friends in the Club, and upon Colonel Wagner's death to Mr. Samuel W. Fairchild, who in turn presented it to The Union League Club.

Mr. Henry W. Cannon presented to the Club a splendid specimen of a buffalo head, which has been hung in the billiard room. It has been greatly admired, and your Committee extends its thanks to Mr. Cannon for this beautiful gift.

A large photograph of the members of the Constitutional Convention, suitably framed, was received from Hon. Alphonso T. Clearwater and is now hung in the library on the second floor of the Club.

The Club gratefully acknowledges the receipt from our fellow member, Mr. Simeon Ford, of an interesting Civil War relic, consisting of a framed design of laurel wreath, in which are inserted cards bearing the original autographs of Presidents A. Lincoln and Andrew Johnson, and Generals W. T. Sherman and U. S. Grant, and Vice-Admiral D. E. Farragut.

It seems advisable to call the attention of the members of the Club to a misunderstanding which has existed with regard to the rights of members to introduce strangers to the Club House as guests. During the past year the by-law has been amended so as to permit members of the Club to introduce one resident guest a month and one non-resident guest every day if they see fit, provided however that none of these individual guests have been admitted to the Club on the introduction of any member within the current calendar month. In the event that it is desired to introduce a non-resident as a guest to the Club oftener than this rule permits, application may be made at the office of the Club for a two weeks' card. Of course the restriction on the same person being introduced into the Club but once in any one calendar month does not apply to entertainments or art exhibitions, for which purposes this restriction is removed.

The business of the Club for the year 1915 shows a substantial increase over last year in all departments.

The amounts expended for extraordinary alterations, repairs, and for receptions and entertainments, have been necessarily large, and in part are as follows:

For the protection of passers-by from falling ice and snow, extensive alterations on the roof were necessary. This work was completed pursuant to the plans and advice of experts, and including a copper roof on the cigar room, amounted to	$2,896.93
In the kitchen and vegetable room new brass pipes, fittings, and connections, to replace those worn out; new metal ceiling; new concrete bins; new drains; new iron shelving; two new scuttles in roof; new cement base and new floors; disconnecting and reconnecting all of the fixtures in the kitchen after the new floor was laid, cost	1,996.29
Expenses made necessary by new building adjoining; the cost of alterations in room A and including engineer's services	593.12

Improvements and alterations in dormitory section, including removing windows and cementing openings in east side court; cutting openings and installing new windows in nine bedrooms	$1,146.88
New meat, oyster, and fish refrigerators, and building and constructing new oyster bar	2,195.30
New ventilating system in toilet room on the main floor, including architect's fee	927.26
New carpet for main stairway	560.00
Restoring Club paintings	485.00
Building, constructing, and equipping new cigar humidor	2,750.00
The increase in cost of receptions and entertainments as compared with the cost last year is	8,113.55
For extraordinary purchases and repairs, contracted for last year, including sundry alterations in basement, new carpets, new refrigerators, and paid for out of this year's funds	6,549.75

(For complete details see the Treasurer's report.)

The unexpended cash surplus transferred to the Finance Committee, in conformity with Article No. 5 of the By-Laws, is $31,248.13, and the Finance Committee's report, January 1, 1916, shows a balance of $327,216.53.

The financial condition of the Club is excellent.

Inventories have been periodically taken, the accounts of the Club examined and audited, and their correctness attested to by the American Audit Company of New York.

The Chairman is indebted to the Officers of the Club, to his associates on the Executive Committee, and to the several Standing Committees for their hearty coöperation during the year's work.

To the House Committee,

ROBERT C. MORRIS, Chairman,
CHARLES A. FOWLER,
JAMES WILKINSON,

whose assiduous efforts for the Club's welfare, for the success attained in the results, and for the excellent condition of the Club, the thanks of this Committee and of all the members are due.

Respectfully submitted,
WALTER E. FREW,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON LIBRARY AND PUBLICATIONS

NEW YORK, January 13, 1916.

To The Union League Club:

The Committee on Library and Publications respectfully submit their report for the year 1915.

The records of the Library show a total of 16,269 volumes.

Of the 421 volumes added during the year, 62 were presented and 359 were purchased. Of these latter, 195 replaced worn-out or inferior editions, or volumes added to sets already on the shelves and incomplete.

Suggestions and recommendations from members to the Committee have been influential in the selection of a number of important books.

Seven subscriptions are placed yearly with the New York Society Library, which enables the Committee to keep twenty-eight volumes continuously, part of which are exchanged weekly. From this source our Library has received 475 books during the year, of which 120 were specially requested by members of the Club. By this method current novels and many other books, new and old, have been available, which it was not thought best to add to the shelves of the Club Library.

Many books, pamphlets, and maps, relating to the Great War, have been placed in the Library and Reading-Room.

The appropriation of $4,500.00 has been expended as follows:

FIXED CHARGES:
Newspapers	$1,460 58
Magazines and periodicals	839 72
Annuals	194 91
N. Y. Society Library	90 38
		$2,585 59
MAINTENANCE:
Binding and files	$ 579 97
Continuations of sets	217 81
Books replacing old editions	161 05
Miscellaneous (includes cash payments, printing, supplies, etc.)	458 88	$1,417 71
NEW BOOKS		495 30
Balance		1 40
		$4,500 00

A list of the books donated and purchased, together with the newspapers, periodicals, and magazines regularly received and filed in the Library and Reading-room, is appended to this report for the convenience of the members of the Club.

Respectfully submitted,

CHAS. HARVEY LANE,
Chairman.

THEODORE E. LEEDS,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ART

NEW YORK, January 13, 1916.

To The Union League Club:

The Committee on Art respectfully submits the following report for the year 1915.

In organizing the art exhibitions which have been given in the art gallery of the Club, the Committee has adhered, in the main, to the well-established and publicly recognized policy of making the exhibitions representative of the best work of our contemporary American artists.

Our first exhibition, that in the month of February, consisted of twenty-five oil paintings obtained directly from the artists' studios and including examples of the work of such painters as Robert Vonnoh, N. A., J. Francis Murphy, N.A., F. Luis Mora, N.A., Frank Vincent Du Mond, N.A., C. C. Curran, N.A., George Bellows, N.A., and others.

The second exhibition, held in March, comprised twenty-one pictures, among them important works of Claude Monet, Renoir, Sisley, and Pissarro, of the modern French school; a group of paintings by contemporary Dutch artists such as Josef Israels, Kever and W. Maris; a capital work of the Spanish painter, Zuloaga, and examples of the Americans, F. W. Kost, N.A., Louis Paul Dessar, N.A., Cullen Yates, A.N.A., and Edward Dufner, A.N.A.

The third exhibition, given in December, was composed of works by noted American artists, principally figure and subject pictures, the names including Messrs. Weir, Wiles, Volk, Tryon, Sargent, Metcalf, C. C. Coleman, Lawson, Daingerfield, H. B. Jones, F. C. Jones, Watrous, Carlsen, and others equally well-known.

The fourth exhibition, now on view in the art gallery, consists of twenty-one works, including four pieces of sculpture by Robert I. Aitken, N.A., and A. A. Weinman, N.A. The pictures comprise four groups of works by J. Carroll Beckwith, N.A., William R. Derrick, Frederick W. Kost, N.A., and William T. Dannat, the well-known American artist whose residence is in Paris where he is President of the Paris Society of American Painters.

It is the belief of the Committee that these exhibitions, while affording pleasure and instruction to the large number of visitors who have seen them, have upheld the standard maintained in the art exhibitions for so many years and that while conditions are shifting constantly in the art world of New York and it is sometimes difficult to assemble a small collection of really representative works for a club exhibition, there is good ground for the expectation that this interesting feature of the Club's activities may be successfully carried forward in the future.

WILLIAM A. COFFIN,
Chairman.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON POLITICAL REFORM

To The Union League Club:

The Committee on Political Reform respectfully submits the following report for the year 1915:

Pursuant to call of the Secretary of the Club, the Committee held its first meeting on Tuesday evening, Feb. 2, 1915, at 8:30 o'clock, and elected officers for the ensuing year, as follows:

REUBEN LESLIE MAYNARD, Chairman;
GEORGE B. AGNEW, Vice-Chairman;
SAMUEL S. CAMPBELL, Treasurer;
IRA H. BRAINERD, Secretary.

Regular monthly meetings were thereafter held on the first Tuesday of each calendar month in which was held a regular monthly meeting of the Club, excepting the first Tuesday of November, which fell on Election night.

At these meetings resolutions referred to the Committee were considered, and reported back to the Club with recommendations for appropriate action. Of its own initiative the Committee submitted at the May meetings of the Club resolutions favoring the adoption of the Short Ballot principle in state, county, and municipal government, and recommending a revision of the state constitution so as to provide for the popular election of the governor and lieutenant governor, and for vesting in the governor the appointment of other administrative state officers, subject to confirmation by the Senate. Those resolutions were unanimously adopted, and printed copies thereof were subsequently sent to each member of the Constitutional Convention then in session at Albany, N. Y. With slight modification the principle recommended was adopted by the Constitutional Convention and incorporated in the proposed state constitution, by it formulated.

Again of its own initiative the Committee prepared and, at the October meeting of the Club, submitted resolutions approving and endorsing the proposed constitution for the state of New York, formulated by the Constitutional Convention of 1915, and strongly urging its adoption by the suffrage of the state, which were unanimously adopted. On its motion a further resolution was unanimously adopted, directing the President of the Club to appoint a committee of ten, to coöperate with similar committees of other organizations in presenting the merits and advantages of said proposed constitution to the citizens of the state, and to take such further action as might be deemed expedient to secure its adoption. Pursuant to the provisions of said resolution, a committee on the constitution was duly appointed, of which the chairman, secretary, and two others were members of the Committee on Political Reform. Selected literature, elucidating practically every provision of the proposed constitution, was promptly mailed by said committee to every member of the Club.

We may further report that all matters referred to the Committee during the year have received its consideration, and that final disposition has been made thereof. Its work is fully complete to date.

Respectfully submitted,

REUBEN LESLIE MAYNARD,
Chairman.

NEW YORK, January 13, 1916.
